Session 1 – "Disruptive Innovation: The Future of Care Delivery for Seniors"

Presented by: Robert Kramer, NIC

Content: We are entering a time of disruptive innovation in senior care and in aging services and healthcare delivery more broadly. Companies will either be disruptors or disrupted. The current seniors housing, long-term care, post-acute care, and acute care products will need to be repositioned, reimaged and recreated in order to serve the future customer, take advantage of new technologies and respond to the move to value-based, outcomes-driven healthcare. Come hear the key concepts that will define this future, the key trends that are driving it, and the key success factors for providers of care and services to seniors.

Recommended Audience: AL, BC, NF

9:45 a.m. – 10:00 a.m. – Break

10:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. – Breakout Sessions

Session 2 – Leadership in Leaner Times (Walker Bay Ballroom)

Presented by: Clint Maun, Maun-Lemke Speaking and Consulting, LLC

Content: Today's health care and senior housing leaders are faced with staffing concerns, expense control problems, productivity issues, regulatory/compliance and competitive pressures for market positioning. To successfully turn these challenges into opportunities, the organization's leadership must put into motion techniques and methods to orchestrate positive effects during the "leaner" times, while continuing the highest quality service.

Recommended Audience: AL, BC, NF

Session 3 – Money Tied to Results

Presented by: Clint Maun, Maun-Lemke Speaking and Consulting, LLC

Content: Value-based payment is here and will continue in the future. Your operations, management and engagement of the workforce must be built around the new system. You must have the correct data, the correct financial system, the correct partners and the correct focus. While many organizations are still operating on fee-for-service, it is critical to make successful moves toward valued-based payment. This session covers simple changes that can be made so your organization is a true participant in the “Money Tied to Results” environment.

Session 4 – Proactively Managing Serious Safety Events (Walker Bay Ballroom)

Presented by: Cyndi Siders, HCIS Insurance and Jodi Boyne, Leading Age

Content: Research has identified lack of effective leadership as a failure-mode in serious safety events. In many situations, timely and appropriate response can mean the difference between life and death. Taking care of the people; resident, family and staff is an essential first response step. How the organization responds including transparency, learning, improvement and resolution can have a significant impact on reputation and reResident/family trust. This presentation will address important steps in serious clinical safety event response including; investigation, disclosure of adverse events, quality/peer review protection, interviews, documentation, preparing for media response, regulatory reporting and process improvement. Case scenarios will be used for facilitated discussion.
